

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXI.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1893.

NO. 24

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Col. Alvah Pullins is here from Paint Lick.
—W. P. Baker was in Louisville most of last week.
—Business Manager E. C. Walton was in London Thursday hustling up the debtors.
—Your correspondent is the proud possessor of a pedigreed stallion now and I am contemplating naming him Billy Walton.
—The London and Pittsburg base ball players crossed bats at the latter place Wednesday. Score stood Pittsburg, 10; London, 30.
—Blondell & Conkling's Comedy Co. made a four-night's stand here and had good crowds at every performance at the Jackson Opera House. It is certainly a good variety show.
—Considerable preparation is being made to celebrate Decoration Day, May 30, at this place. Last year there were nearly 2,000 people here and there will probably be more this time.
—Jailer Dan Lovell and H. C. Eversole left Sunday for Jackson county, where Lovell is to be tried on a charge of murder in the case against him and Jink Young. Dan is confident of an acquittal.
—Mr. John W. Creech and Miss Georgia A. Nelson were married on the 18th. Also Mr. D. H. Whitehead, formerly of Rockcastle, and Miss Alice Hedrick, daughter of James Hedrick, were married Sunday at the home of the bride's father.
—George Pittman, of Pittsburgh, accompanied by Miss Nellie Pittman and Nellie Reid, came through London Friday from Rockcastle river, where they had been fishing for several days. They had a cat fish caught in the pool above Rockcastle Springs that weighed 35 lbs.
—Antonio Vogliotti's little five-year-old boy is quite a talented youth. He can carry on an ordinary conversation in four different languages—English, German, French and Italian. His mother is a German and Vogliotti is what his name indicates. They converse together in French and each talk to him in their native tongue. He has picked up American on the outside.
—Deputy U. S. Marshal Hughes and Owens have been in this county during the past week and have arrested several parties; among them James Fox, whom they found in Clay county. Fox is charged with killing Deputy Marshal Hamilton in Owens county two years ago and has been indicted in the U. S. court for murder. This is the second case of the kind ever brought before the court, so Deputy Hughes informs the writer.

McKINNEY.

—Rev. J. H. Julian filled his pulpit here Saturday and Sunday. His wife and children accompanied him. The pastor and wife presented highly complimentary letters of dismission from the Baptist church at Prospect, Ohio, upon which recommendation they were received into the fellowship of the Baptist church here. The pastor baptized Mrs. Vianna Davidson and she was received into the church on profession of her faith in Christ.
—One more of our valued citizens has just passed into eternity, leaving many hearts to mourn. We refer to the death of Mrs. A. B. McKinney, which occurred at 8 o'clock Saturday night. She had been a sufferer from cancer of the breast for several months, but was confined to her bed only about five weeks. She was in her 57th year when death came and relieved her of her pain and severed the cord that had kept her out of the heavenly home which she had so faithfully coveted for years. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved husband, who is now alone in life at the advanced age of 60 years.
—Mr. and Mrs. Dock Coffey, of Crawfordsville, Ind., are visiting relatives here. Mrs. Armstrong Strowd, of Eu-Eubanks and Mrs. T. J. Cress, of Wayneburg, are visiting at Mrs. Peggy Gooch's. Mr. Fred Sheiton, of Somerset, is visiting his uncle, John Beck. W. T. Dodd and A. J. Cannon attended court at Liberty Monday. K. L. Tanner was also present in order that business might proceed without interruption. Had he failed to appear on the street the court might have appointed a committee to confer with the citizens of this place at once as to the old gentleman's physical and mental condition and then adjourned to await their report. W. B. Hanford and wife and W. J. Duncan and wife, of Somerset, are visiting old friends and relatives here.

For a durable whitewash for trees and fences, use a bushel of best white lime, slaked in boiling water. Add to the cream 4 pounds sulphate of zinc and 2 pounds common salt dissolved in water. Make the mixture strong enough to use with the brush. If a light brown color is required, add a little hydraulic cement, ocher for yellow and Venetian red for pink or red.—Scientific American.

—The government printing office is short of work and 325 men have been suspended.

LANCASTER, GARRARD COUNTY.

—Mr. John F. Stormes has qualified and given bond as administrator of his father's estate.
—We are still willing to put up that stack of blue chips on Judge W. E. Walker for collector of this district.
—Mr. John M. Duncan, who is assigned to duty as U. S. gauger in Anderson county, is at home for a few days' rest.
—Sunday was the annual "bonnet show" day at the Fork church. A large delegation of Lancaster's young folks and several couples from Stanford attended.
—One of the largest audiences seen in Lancaster for quite awhile attended the gospel temperance meeting at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. The discourse was by Elder Frank. These meetings will continue to be held every Sunday night at the various churches until further notice.
—Mr. E. Higgins, of Louisville, was here Sunday to see his many friends. Miss Lena Bright, whose illness was noted in this column last issue, has recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home near Huttie. Mrs. Scott and daughter, Mrs. Charles Glass, of Jessamine, are visiting Mrs. W. B. Mason. Miss Lily Noel, of Danville, is visiting Miss Mamie Noel. Mr. Sam Harris, of Louisville, is here on a visit to his parents. Miss Florence Jenkins, of Danville, is the guest of Miss Mamie Curry. Miss Ellen G. Owsley leaves to-day for Henderson, to attend the wedding of her cousin, Miss May Ehrman. Bert Spencer, of the Bryant & Stratton College at Louisville, is here visiting his parents. Miss Jennie Lackey is in Richmond visiting relatives.

—Your correspondent had the pleasure of a visit to the handsome and hospitable city of Harrodsburg on Saturday, the 20th. The constitutionality of the local option law was discussed before Judge Sanley by Col. W. G. Welch, of Stanford, who represented the applicants for the holding of an election in three Lancaster districts June 24, and by Gen. W. J. Landrum, who represented the contestants. Hon. R. P. Jacobs, of Danville, was also present assisting Gen. Landrum. The judge has the matter under consideration and will render a decision some time soon. The local members of the Harrodsburg bar were courteous and kind to the visiting attorneys and were all present during the argument of the question before the court. Judge Sanley has by his ability, courtesy and impartiality upon the bench captured the people of Mercer as he has done in all the counties of his district. The papers indicate a great desire upon the part of the people all over the State to make him governor. He would make a good one, but a good judge is of vastly more importance to the people than a good governor. Later on a change might be in order, but for the present let it remain "Judge Sanley."

John Sam Owsley, Jr., has been winning golden opinions from the bar and the public in his zeal and ability as a prosecutor. The Commercial Hotel, under the management of Mr. James B. Owens, is first class in every respect. The host is untiring in his efforts to make his guests comfortable and he succeeds in all he undertakes. The argument on Saturday was in the same court-house in which the gifted orator, S. S. Prentiss, made his famous speech in the Wilkerson trial.

The crops on the farms in Mercer, Boyle and Garrard are exceedingly promising and the country looks as tho' it might justly be termed the garden spot of the world.
On the occasion of the Knights of Pythias celebration, to be held at Williamstown, Ky., May 30, the Queen and Crescent and Louisville Southern Railroads will sell tickets from all stations in Kentucky at one fare for the round-trip, selling May 30 and making tickets good to return until May 31. The chief attractions will be a street parade, prize drill, barbecue dinner, etc. For further information call on agents or address D. G. Edwards, G. P. A., Cincinnati, O.

An exchange tells of a subscriber who died and left 14 years' subscription unpaid. The editor appeared as the lid of the coffin was being screwed down and put in a linen duster, a thermometer, a palm leaf fan and a receipt for making lice.

—Capt. A. Powell, of Johnson county, Texas, is creating much curiosity at the World's Fair. He is said to be the tallest man in the U. S., being 7 feet and 4 inches.

There is nothing I have ever used for muscular rheumatism that gives me as much relief as Chamberlain's Pain Balm does. I have been using it for about two years, four bottles in all, as occasion required, and always keep a bottle in my home. I believe I know a good thing when I get hold of it, and Pain Balm is the best I have ever met with. W. B. Denny, druggist, New Lexington, O., 50-cent bottles for sale by W. B. McRoberts, druggist, Stanford.

While Mr. T. J. Ritchey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by W. B. McRoberts, druggist, Stanford.

Co-Operation Meeting.

The 9th Semi-Annual Co-Operation Meeting of the Christian Church of Lincoln County convened at Crab Orchard May 19, at 10 o'clock, Bro. Peter W. Carter in the chair. Bro. Joe Severance, Jr., conducted the opening devotional exercises. Bro. W. N. Briney delivered a hearty and earnest welcome address, which was responded to by Bro. W. L. Williams.

Next came an address by Bro. C. E. Tate, subject, "Heroism." Bro. W. E. Ellis then addressed the convention on "America's Standing Army." Then Bro. Milton Elliott set forth in a very forcible manner the aim and agencies of our work. Bro. Stephen Collier then read a startling letter from Pope Leo XIII to the Roman Church.

The chair then appointed the following committees: On Resolutions, Bros. Ellis, Beazley, Root, Joe Severance, Jr., W. L. Williams; on Time and Place, Bros. Powell, Bush, Murphy, King. Convention then adjourned for dinner and reconvened at 1 o'clock.

After devotional exercises, conducted by R. G. Frank, Bro. J. G. Livingston spoke on "The Field and Its Needs."

In response to a call by Bro. Williams a collection amounting to $13 was taken up to aid in the construction of a house of worship at Green River.

By a unanimous vote the following Executive Committee was elected: Bros. Bush, Powell, Root, P. W. Carter, Duderar, Brady, Hatt, McCarty, Stephens, King. Bro. P. W. Carter was re-elected chairman; Bro. C. E. Tate was elected secretary.

Committee on Time and Place reported Hall's Gap, on Saturday before the 2d Sunday in Oct. 1893.

Committee on Resolutions reported the following report, which was heartily received and adopted:

Resolved, 1. That the co-operative work of the churches within Lincoln county is indispensable in order to bear the gospel message to those who do not attend the preaching of the gospel at our churches.

2. That the churches within the county are urgently requested to contribute to the treasury of the county co-operation so that their evangelist may give as much time as possible to the work.

3. That the work accomplished by our evangelist is eminently satisfactory and encouraging and that he should be sustained and encouraged to press his work to still greater success.

4. That the obstruction that hinders the progress of the gospel is the numerous licensed saloons, affecting more or less for evil the morals of the young men in every community, and frequently resulting in disturbing religious worship and leading to violence.

5. That such evils legalized in our county demand the united and persistent efforts of every good citizen for their removal.

6. That the thanks of this convention are tendered the church at Crab Orchard for their generous hospitality so lavishly bestowed upon the members of this convention. W. E. Ellis, Ch'n.

After a few five-minute talks by Bros. Collier, Baker, Williams, the convention was adjourned by Bro. Collier, and every one went away feeling that "it was good to have been there."

The good people of Crab Orchard will long be remembered by all who attended the convention, because of their bountiful hospitality.

R. G. FRANK, Sec'y pro tem.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—Mary Kasmirsky, a Michigan girl, was married the other day to Frank Hannek, who was on the eve of departing for the penitentiary to serve a term of seven years for manslaughter.

—Miss Leahy Nall, the beautiful and fascinating daughter of Editor Ion B. Nall, of Louisville, is shortly to marry Mr. H. F. Shanks, of that city. Miss Leahy is one of the most winsome of women and Mr. Shanks is to be congratulated on winning her.

—It gives us pleasure to announce that, after a courtship extending over a number of years, Mr. W. P. Grimes and Miss Ella Givens will be married to-morrow. The ceremony will occur at Mrs. S. W. Givens, after which the new pair will leave for Chicago, to be gone a few weeks. Our hearty congratulations are extended in advance of the happy event.

The third party is, to all appearances, now dead in this section, where it was once so rampant and ubiquitous. In Webster county, where it was always strongest, a fragment of the party held a meeting at Dixon last week to nominate a candidate for representative to the Legislature, but the attendance was so small the meeting adjourned without action until a date in July.—Owensboro Messenger.

Bucklin's Arnica Salve.

It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. R. Penny, Stanford, Ky.

HUSTONVILLE.

—Hustonville has been dull of late, and as this letter will prove, news is scarce.

—Rev. Mr. McDonald, an evangelist, preached at the Christian church Sunday morning.

—Doc and Brother Drye are training horses at Moreland and are doing a good business. They have in charge some 15 splendid performers.

—The young people are looking forward with much pleasure to the commencement exercises of Christian College, which come off early in June.

—It is more than probable that Mrs. Nannie Owens and her son Ed will run the Cumberland Falls Hotel this season; however, they have made no announcement to that effect yet.

—Smith Yowell is again on the road, this time with Foard-Eaton & Co. It is to be hoped that Smith will not have the bad luck to have his house go under, as did the last one he traveled for.

—The brass band is progressing nicely and the boys are "tooting" long and loud. They are corresponding with Mr. Frost, of Lexington, who will likely be engaged to teach—that is start them where Prof. Buchanan left off.

—Jim Allen's locust grove, recently set out, is growing nicely and will soon make his property on Main street look like a different place. He says that in ten years he will refuse a $1,000 for the trees to be made into posts. May his fondest expectations be realized.

—We are looking for a number of marriages in the near future. An elopement of two young society folks is daily expected, a former Casey county man will soon go to his native county and take unto himself a wife, while a gentleman who bears a cognomen similar to that of the first man will "cross over the creek" and join the list of Benedictines.

—Mrs. A. B. McKinney, of the McKinney vicinity, died Saturday of cancer of the breast after an illness of several months. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and was a splendid woman in every particular. Rev. W. W. Bruce preached a most excellent funeral at her late residence Sunday at 2 p. m., and at 4 her remains were laid to rest in the Hustonville cemetery. She was the second wife of Mr. McKinney and left no children.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Lyles, of Nashville, are guests at Mr. J. M. Cook's. Miss Kate Cook, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Lyles, returned with her. Mrs. Pattie Drye and daughters, Misses Alice and Mabel, leave in a few days for Mt. Sterling to visit relatives. Mrs. Prissie Drye will soon visit relatives at Stanton, this State. This visit will be Mrs. Drye's first one in a decade. Jake Tucker, of the wild and woolly west, will arrive in a few days to visit his father, Mr. R. H. Tucker.

—A young man who had been calling on a certain young lady in town seven nights out of the week was asked by the mother of the said young lady a few days since why he did not bring his clothes and stay all the time. The y. m. did not wait to reply, but left very angry. He soon forgot his wrath, though, and on Sunday was seen occupying his seat on the front porch.

A House-Cleaning Ditty.

An exchange sings this doleful song: "Father, dear father, come home with me now, for ma has some carpet to beat; she's got all the furniture out in the yard from the front door clean down to the street. The stove must come down and be put in the shed, and the yard must be cleaned of dead grass, for it's time to clean house and the devil's to pay—and the front windows need some glass. Father, dear father, come home with me now, and bring some bologna and cheese; it's most twelve o'clock and there's nothing to eat—I'm hungry, I'm weak in the knees. All the dinner we'll have will be cold snaps and such, and we'll have to eat standing up, too, for the table and chairs are all out in the yard—oh, I wish spring house-cleaning was through. Father, dear father, come home with me now, for ma is mad as a Turk; she says you are a lazy old thing and that she proposes to put you to work. There's painting to do and paper to hang, and windows and casings to scrub, for it's house-cleaning time, and you've got to come home, and revel in suds and cold grub."

This is the way the Florida editors impressed the people of Bowling Green: "The Florida Press Association took breakfast here on their trip to Chicago. Some of them were rather seedy for editors and too green for anything. Nobody need be surprised to hear of their blowing out the gas while at Chicago. There were many intelligent men among them, however, and some of the South's most prominent journalists. They gave the following as the motto of their association: 'If you don't like it, pour it back into the jug.'"

—Two Jews were hung at Tanhannock, Pa., the first instance of the kind in the history of America. Only one other Jew was ever sentenced to death and he died before the day of execution.

EVERY FRIDAY.

JUDGE TAYLOR, of Covington, who will be remembered by most democratic convention-goers as the little man with the big voice, has made an assignment and will go to North Dakota to live. In his younger days the judge loved a pretty maiden, who did not reciprocate his affections; at least she married another, and left him to weep in silence and alone. He gave up the society of ladies then and not until six weary years had passed did he even hope for happiness again. At that time the husband of the only woman he thought he could love died, and after the conventional period had passed, the judge again laid siege to the heart that he had failed to win before. This time he had better luck and about a year ago, he led his first and only love to the altar. For a time his happiness was unbroken, but before very long an incompatibility of temperament began to manifest itself and matters grew from bad to worse, till finally the wife packed her trunk and left the house of her husband never to return. It is a sad ending of a romantic love affair and is another proof that the realization of anticipations rarely reach expectations.

Tax legislative menagerie at Frankfort is greatly stirred up over Representative Halbert's speech, which he delivered at Vanceburg, in which he charged that many Senators had accepted bribes and that many members of the House were open to conviction on the point. A resolution was adopted calling upon him to come to Frankfort and substantiate his accusations. He has not come yet, but from his perch away off in the hills he reiterates the charges and says he was correctly reported. Since the above was written Mr. Halbert has realized what a tempest he has raised and sent a letter to the Assembly, in which he hedges and lays all on the d—n reporter.

The World's Fair was not open Sunday as was proposed. The National commission opposed it and Attorney General Olney issued instructions to the district attorney at Chicago to be prepared to act should it be necessary to restrain the managers from opening. In the mean time the opposition to the opening is gaining force and numbers and the probability is that those who want to see the great show will have to select another than the first day of the week.

Texas democrats are hungrier than any of them for office. There are 35 applicants for one collectorship alone and the back districts yet to hear from. All the other offices have dozens of applicants each, no matter if the pay is not large. Texas evidently did not roll up that unprecedented majority for nothing. She wants pie and she wants it like the man who kept tavern in the Lone Star State in its early history.

A POKEY COUNTY, IND., man has solved the problem of taking in the World's Fair without much of an outlay. Including car fare, an entire day there only cost him 60 cents. He got milk free at the milk exhibit, rolls do, at the yeast exhibit and buttered crackers at the butter exhibit. There will not be many people who wish to act so niggardly, but we give this for the benefit of those who do.

FETTER'S MAGAZINE is to be further improved. Messrs. Madison J. Cawein and Samuel Bush have become part owners of it and it has been decided to invite Mr. James Lane Allen to occupy the editorial chair, and the Hon. J. Proctor Knott will be asked to preside over the Editor's Drawer. The publication is already an honor to the section it represents.

WONDERS continue to multiply. A woman has been found who did not think herself pretty. She lived in New York and not only agreed with the general verdict that she was painfully ugly, but went so far as to commit suicide, after writing a note saying she knew that she was so homely no man could ever love her.

THE SENATE re-considered and passed the resolution to adjourn sine die June 15th, but it has no idea of doing so. It will not be on one of those rare days in leafy June when the legislature finally puts up the shutters, but a very cold one, with the beautiful snow falling thick and fast.

BOROUGH county elects her county judges for life on good behavior. She has had only four judges since 1850 and each has been elected till he died in office. The Kentuckian says the overwhelming vote by which Judge Samuels was re-nominated shows that he too will be forced to die at his post or live always.

THE most unkindest cut of all comes from the Owensboro Messenger. Faithful are the wounds of a friend. Perhaps these were deserved. We feel guilty, at any rate, and regretted after it was too late that the silly paragraph was printed.

The champion mugwump of the present administration is Post-master General Bissell, who seems not to know for what purpose he is there. He says that the terms of fourth-class post-masters are indefinite and that he will not permit them to be removed merely to make place for democrats. If Brer. Bissell would take his fat form away off in some neglected spot and lay it down and die the absence of tearful eyes among the boys in the trenches would be worthy of remark.

This country is enjoying the luxury of entertaining royalty. Princess Eulalie, of Spain, is "in our midst" and is creating quite a furor. She called on the uncrowned queen of American womanhood at the White House Saturday and later Mrs. Cleveland with the wives of the cabinet officers invaded the Princess' apartments at her hotel, and everybody had such a nice time.

FIVE Peoria distilleries, with a combined capacity of 80,000 gallons a day have withdrawn from the whisky trust and that concern is threatened with disruption. These be troublous times on combine and it will be the irony of fate if the whisky trust will be the first to go to the wall.

Editors are going to be thick as violinists in hades at Chicago next week. Every paper in the State will be represented by from one to three or four persons and as Col. Polk Johnson would say, a very halcyon and vociferous time awaits us.

REV. DR. EATON, of Louisville, says he will not patronize the World's Fair if it is opened on Sundays. This is very sad, but arrangements may be effected by which Mahomet may be brought to the mountain, if the mountain will not go to Mahomet.

Tax president has found another man with a peculiar patronimic and presented him with a position. He is Mr. Kerr Craige, of North Carolina, and he will be third assistant post-master general, vice Hazen resigned, because he had to.

NEWSY NOTES.

A forest fire invaded a lumber camp near Lake City, Mich., and caused the loss of 10 lives.

Miss Mary Hardwick, of Science Hill, was shot by unknown parties and placed on a freight train.

James E. Murdoch, the great tragedian and teacher of elocution, died at Cincinnati in his 84th year.

It will take 90,000 visitors a day to pay the expenses of the World's Fair and so far that number has not nearly materialized.

Horace F. Smith, brother of President M. H. Smith, of the L. & N., has been appointed general freight agent of the Q. & C.

The Chinese minister has informed the secretary of state that his country is not likely to adopt any retaliatory measures on account of the Geary law.

Dr. T. J. Hourigan has been sentenced to ten years in the penitentiary by the court at Lebanon, but the sentence was suspended for 60 days pending an appeal.

The Fayette county court of claims has fixed the salary of the county judge at $1,500, that of the county attorney at $500 and that of the county superintendent at $1,100.

President Ulman, of the Oglethorpe National Bank at Brunswick, Ga., committed suicide in the bank over financial troubles. A run followed and the bank had to be closed.

Near Mulberry, Ark., John Wilson, a gray-haired old man, was shot and killed by a Mr. Summers, his brother-in-law, for attempting to abduct and marry the latter's daughter.

Mrs. Walton Henderson Crutcher daughter of Dr. Howard Henderson, at one time superintendent of public instruction of Kentucky, died at Hartwell, O., after a protracted illness.

Mrs. Charles Conway, of Bourbon, who witnessed the terrible mutilation of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conway by a negro with a corn knife, gave birth to a headless infant the other day, which lived 15 minutes.

The mystery surrounding the death of A. V. DuPont, the bachelor millionaire, of Louisville, is being cleared up. It is now established that he met his death in Maggie Payne's bazaar, but not by violence, as has been stated.

Blondin, the strong man, died from the effects of a broken blood vessel at Saranac, N. Y. He was trying to hold two horses together pulling in opposite directions, when the animals made a lunge and nearly jerked him in two.

Mrs. Stella Baird, the beautiful post-master at LaGrange, has been found to be $2,000 short in her accounts and she is now wild with grief. It is thought that her father stole the money from her, as he disappeared as soon as an inspector arrived.

The balance of trade against the United States for the 12 months ending April 30 is shown by a statement issued by the bureau of statistics to have reached the enormous sum of $77,902,561. The decrease of exports during the year amounted to $162,748,746, and the imports increased $94,006,617.

The unwritten law does not always avail. Henry Scott, who killed Sam Swartz at Owensboro for alleged intimacy with his wife, was given 16 years in the penitentiary. There was considerable doubt as to the truth of the charge, the belief being that the killing was the result of an old grudge.

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Rev. H. M. Scudder's meeting in Bracken county resulted in 26 additions.

Rev. W. E. Ellis is holding a meeting at Mt. Xenia. Preaching each night at 8 o'clock.

Rev. J. H. Julian will preach at Pleasant Point next Sunday at 11 A. M. and at Waynesburg at 3 P. M.

The 65th annual council of the Episcopal diocese of Kentucky will convene in Christ Episcopal church, Lexington, to-morrow.

Mrs. Claggett, of Kentucky, was seated in the Cumberland Assembly as a delegate, but the question of women's eligibility to such a position is to be settled later on.

The West Lexington Presbytery dissolved the pastoral relations of Rev. A. S. Moffett with the Midway church and he will sail for the missionary field in Brazil July 1.

It was a beautiful sight on last Sunday morning, at the Methodist church, when 28 persons were received into the church. Twenty-three of them were baptized at the same hour. Harrodsburg Democrat.

Secretary Lansing Burrows reported to the Southern Baptist Convention that the body represented a membership of 2,502,067 in the 16 States composing it, of which nearly half are negroes. The entire membership in Kentucky is 231,803.

The Southern Presbyterians are to have a new hymn book. The Assembly at Macon indorsed the "Hymns of the Ages," selected and arranged by Robert Kerr, of Richmond, Va., and directed the publication committee to have it printed at once.

Rather than have Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage carry into execution his threat to resign the pastorate of the Brooklyn Tabernacle, the officers of the church met Saturday and wiped out the $100,000 debt that has been hanging over it "like a nightmare" a long time.

Notwithstanding the other attractions, a good crowd attended the union services at the Presbyterian church Sunday night, when Rev. W. E. Ellis preached. The next meeting will be at the Christian church and will be conducted by Rev. W. E. Arnold, of the Methodist church.

Rev. W. E. Keller, who a few years ago accepted a call to the Presbyterian church at Meridian, Miss., is coming back to Kentucky. Mrs. Keller will take the principalship of Roseland Female Academy, Bardonia, in June, and Dr. Keller will, as soon as his health permits, accept a pastorate in this State.

The Stanford colored Christian church, after a very successful meeting of two weeks, held by Rev. W. M. Richards, of Winchester, closed its Sunday night with 14 additions, four by baptism and ten restored to the church. Baptizing Sunday in Logan's Creek. We praise God from Whom all blessings flow. A large attendance of both white and colored at the baptizing.

A reporter of this paper who attended services at the Danville Baptist church Sunday asserts that the choir there is among the best in the State. Miss Nan Nannie Stodghill, the organist, manipulates the keys in a manner calculated to inspire the listener, while Cant. Wm. C. Price with a Cornet adds volume and sweetness to the art divine. The choir practices regularly every week and has gotten music down to a fine point. The membership of the church is over 400 and all seem devoted to the excellent pastor, Rev. J. W. Lynch.

Dr. Willis G. Craig, of Chicago, a native of Danville, was elected to succeed Rev. W. C. Young as moderator of the Northern General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, now in session at Washington. Judge J. W. Lapsley, of Anniston, Ala., was elected moderator of the Southern General Assembly at Macon, Ga., the first time in the history of the Presbyterian Church in the United States that a layman has been elected to the office of moderator of a General Assembly. Rev. W. S. Ferguson, of Petersburg, Ill., was chosen to preside over the Cumberland General Assembly at Little Rock, Ark.

LANCASTER COURT. — The farmers were too busy to attend court yesterday and the consequence was the crowd was small and business generally dull. Thompson bought of Miller & Poor 40 head of sheep at 4c. A few horses changed hands at $20 to $35. No mules were offered.

He purchased 58 mule colts, all mares but 13, at an average of $63. Jerry Kinney shipped last week to Cincinnati 3 cars of hogs averaging 180 pounds. They cost him 5c to 6c and were sold at 6 1/2 to 7c. He cleared something over $300 on the shipment. —Harrodsburg Democrat.

Mrs. Sam Engleman and son have gone to live with George Engleman for awhile. Mrs. Sallie Eubanks and Mrs. James Robinson will start Wednesday to visit relatives in Illinois and Missouri. Miss Foxie Pennington was visiting the Misses Owsley. Mrs. Edith Harris is having her house painted.

Farmers have about finished planting corn here. The wool trade is now over and the buyers are all lying in the shade counting the dollars saved, not made, and the farmers who have not yet sold are now hatching themselves for not selling while commission men in the country were acting the fool.

THE legislative canvass is warming up. One of the candidates shook hands with the editor four times the other day and would doubtless have continued to do so if they had met often.

SIX & MENEFEE have just completed a fire room addition to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Huffman, making it one of the handsomest residences in that end of town. The work was done in a very satisfactory manner and Mr. Huffman is loud in his praises of the firm.

THE painting of Walton's Opera House has caused the other owners of the block, Messrs. Vandever, Murphy and Shanks, to brighten up also and when they get through it will lay over the new block so much the proprietors and tenants will go behind it and weep.

A WEEK ago cloaks and overcoats were in demand. Now the mercury is playing around the 90s and still we are not happy. It is as much too hot now as it was too cold then. Man never is but always to be blessed, is, especially true with regard to the weather. Thunderstorms were predicted for last night and to-day.

TAKE your repairs to Danks, Jeweler.

PLANTS FOR SALE.—Tomatoes and cabbage. O. J. Newland.

THE best gent's patent leather shoes ever brought to Stanford, at Hughes & Tate's.

REMEMBER that the fair date has been changed to Thursday and Friday, July 27th and 28th.

THAT sterling democrat and excellent gentleman, Mr. W. L. McCarty, has been appointed post-master at Kingsville.

At a special term of the county court Saturday Messrs. G. R. Engleman and B. W. Givens qualified as administrators of the late Samuel Engleman. See notice to creditors in this issue.

THE firm of Greer & Routen, of Rowland, have sold out their entire stock of groceries and closed their doors. Mr. Routen will work at the carpenter trade, while Mr. Greer is undecided as to what business he will pursue.

ELLIOTT INSTITUTE.—Prof. B. F. Blakeman, an experienced educator, and Mrs. Josephine Fain, who has had 20 years' experience in the school-room, have leased Elliott Institute, Kirksville, and will open it the 1st Monday in September.

CENTRE COLLEGE continues to secure oratorical honors. In the inter-collegiate contest at Columbia, S. C., Martin D. Hardin, son of Gen. Watt Hardin, won by a unanimous decision of the judges, and we'll wager there will be no charges of plagiarism this time.

SHOT.—A man named Delaney, from Buckeye, was shot in the thigh here on Thursday night. He says that two men ran up on him at the Danville crossing when one of them shot him without any cause whatever. It is generally believed here, however, that he shot himself.

THE south-bound passenger train was delayed several hours Sunday by an accident at Nelsonville. The engine ran through an open switch and turned over down an embankment, greatly damaging it, but fortunately injuring no one. An engine was sent out to pull the train to its destination and the wrecker from Rowland soon had the disabled engine on its wheels again.

WE are requested by Rowland citizens and several persons who live on Logan's creek to ask the boys not to make their bathing in that stream so conspicuous. They have been in the habit of going in at the bridge at Rowland and many do not hide their nakedness by staying under water even when ladies pass. There is a fine for this business, but the offenders are generally young boys, whose parents should teach them better.

FABRIC & HANSEN's delivery horse became frightened by a shaft breaking and falling on his heels as he was being driven to Rowland Saturday and took out at a break neck speed. The boy who was doing the driving pulled him into the fence, breaking a wheel and other portions of the wagon and throwing him out heavily against the ground. Strange to say, neither the boy nor the horse was hurt, save a slight cut in the boy's cheek.

A LARGE and very black negro was seen entering a back window of J. H. Hilton's store a few nights ago at Rowland by young Ollie Hiatt, who sleeps in the building. Mr. Hiatt, fortunately for the would-be thief, was not supplied with a pistol and could only scare the rascal away by threatening to shoot. He left, however, without standing on the order of his going, and has not been heard of since. He broke several glass in opening the window.

THE new county committee met at the court-house Saturday afternoon and organized by selecting R. R. Gentry, chairman and J. A. Chappell secretary. Mr. M. F. North, of Hustonville precinct No. 1 tendered his resignation, which was accepted, and Mr. J. J. McKinney was appointed in his stead. No other business was done. The committee is as follows: Stanford No. 1, R. R. Gentry, No. 2, L. L. Dawson, No. 3, J. G. Lynn, No. 4, J. A. Chappell; Hustonville No. 1, J. J. McKinney, No. 2, J. E. Moore, No. 3, J. M. Carter; Waynesburg No. 1, L. G. Gnoch, No. 2, C. L. Hensley, No. 3, J. H. Carter; Crab Orchard No. 1, W. A. Carson, No. 2, S. A. Middleton.

HALE.—As Mr. J. H. Greer, of Rowland, was going to his home back of Mr. H. J. Durs' Thursday night, three men called to him to halt. Mr. Greer knew none of the parties and thinking they wanted him for no good purpose, he took to his heels as fast as his legs would carry him, which was pretty fast, even with a crippled limb. Reaching home nearly out of breath, he rested a few seconds and then procured his gun and started out to make war on the scoundrels. He hunted the surrounding country until nearly worn out and finally went home, no wiser than when he left.

Engineer T. B. Meals about 1 o'clock the same night was called to halt by three men also, and his description of them is the same as given by Mr. Greer. Mr. Meals remembered the old saying, that "a good run is better than a bad stand," and lit out for home. Like Mr. Greer, he got a gun and returned to the scene, but profited none by doing so, as the men had gone. Thursday was pay day and this land of rascals were evidently out for the "stiff" rather than blood.

A MODEST young local preacher referred in his sermon not many nights ago to the gentleman who spent a few days and nights in the "stomach" of a whale.

HARVEY HELM, Esq., is announced in this issue as a candidate for the Legislature. Thoroughly capable and laudably ambitious, he would make a most excellent representative and his friends say they intend to see that his aspirations are gratified.

S. S. MYERS won his suit for damages against Johnston Bros. & Co., Louisville, in the courts in that city Saturday. It will be remembered that that firm attacked Mr. Myers' goods here and caused him to quit business. The amount he gets is $125 and interest.

DECLAMATORY CONTEST.—The Stevenson Society, composed of Messrs. P. W. Johnson, C. E. Tate, W. S. Burch and C. H. Holmes, augmented by Mr. Joe C. Jones, will give a declamatory contest at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night, 30th, for the benefit of the Young Men's Christian Association. A prize of $10 will be awarded to the winner. Admission 25 cents. If the show proves half as good as the one on the hill, it will be worth many times that figure.

NINE.—Col. D. K. Rawlings, the Barbourville lawyer and genius, passed through yesterday en route to Washington to see his partner, Congressman Wilson, who continues quite ill. Observing the colonel's haggard and cadaverous appearance we inquired the wherefore when he replied in his usual drawl: "We have just gotten through with a five weeks' seige of circuit court and I'm played out. We sent a great many (9) to the penitentiary and left a d—n eight more that ought to have been sent. Among those sent up was one woman, Katy Shupe, who gets one year for perjury. The—." The train pulled out at this point, but the colonel kept on talking, judging by the way his mouth was working, till he faded from view.

GOOD NEWS.—The Louisville Critic tells of the organization of the Mt. Pleasant and Elkhorn railroad company with a capital of $3,500,000, the subscribers being capitalists in Chicago, Minneapolis and Louisville. The road is to run from Pineville via Harlan Court-House, and that, which is to be known as the first division, is to be let and put under construction by July 1. This is the finest coal and other mineral section in the South and its development will revolutionize the mining business in the State. Much of the Harlan county lands is owned by the Cumberland Valley Land Co., composed largely of Stanford men, and as the road will traverse them for many miles, the stockholders, who have been holding the bag for a long time, begin to feel that they will shortly be rewarded for their foresight and diligence.

THE BARNES THROUPE.—A court house full of people welcomed Rev. George O. Barnes and his charming daughters back to Stanford Sunday night. The great evangelist was somewhat hoarse from the effects of a cold contracted in a sleeping car en route, but he preached almost with the fire of yore from the 2d chapter of Titus 11 to 13, the same text from which he preached his last sermon from the same stand when he was here last. Since then he has gotten new light on the subject and he was anxious to impart it to his old friends and others of his former home. Miss Marie and Georgia's sweet songs again filled the building and sent delight to the hearts of all who can appreciate the divine melody that they make. The meetings will continue with preaching each night at 8 o'clock for ten days or two weeks, after which Mr. Barnes has no definite plans. Owing to the illness of Miss Georgia and Miss Duncan, the programme arranged from Sanibel Island hither was considerably interfered with, but Bro. Barnes filled alone his week's engagement at White Springs, Florida, Ponce de Leon's discovery, preaching and lecturing to large audiences. An item is going the rounds of the Kentucky papers that Bro. Barnes has recently suffered a paralytic stroke. Questioned and it occurred last January and resulted from his sciatic troubles of long standing. It was not very severe and only affected his left leg, which continues to feel a little numb. He is looking first-rate, however, and is as enthusiastic as ever in the belief that God is Love and Nothing Else. The troupe is comfortably quartered at Col. Welch's, where its members will rest up for a big summer campaign.

DANVILLE.

Representatives from Vanderbilt University, Sewanee College, Tenn., Universities of Texas, Alabama, South Carolina, Virginia and Washington and Lee competed for the honor won by Mr. Hardin.

CHAPTER I.

—John Barbee went to High Bridge Saturday, along with other colored excursionists. On the way back he was suddenly attacked with a headache. Jim White and another fellow had a quart of whisky. It was Burgin whisky. It was not a citizen of Danville. White told John to take a snort of red-eye and it would cure his headache. John didn't want to take it much, but being overpowered threw himself on the outside of a grown person's dose of the same. When he reached Walnut street in Danville he was in a frightfully dissolute state. A young policeman came along with a big club in his hand. He marched John Barbee off to jail so drunk he could not stand.

CHAPTER II.

Monday morning—Police court. Six eighty.
